

Roxanne Journet
Senior Designer

Bringing an intelligent understanding of how sensory experiences can better our quality of life

Experience

Education

Public Design Group (Sydney)

Bachelor of Art in Interior Design

Senior Interior Designer (Contractor) June-July 2020

University of Montréal
2003-2006

Roll-out of Bendigo bank branches throughout Australia

Primary responsibilities

Technical Degree in Interior Design

- Landlord pack
- Full documentation pack
- Compliance to universal accessibility and local regulations

College Marie-Victorin, Montréal
1999-2002

Cheltenham Recreational Club (Sydney)

Language fluency

Lead Designer (Freelance), 2019-2020

English and French

Refurbishment of a landmark tennis club in Sydney's prestigious Cheltenham area

Primary responsibilities

Nationalities

- Concept development
- Material, equipment and furniture specification
- Documentation review
- Liaison with project professionals.

Australia – Permanent resident

Canada (Québec) – Citizen

France – Citizen

Neuf Architectes (Montreal)

Senior Designer, July 2014- May 2019

Diverse senior role working across retail, corporate, retirement housing and multi-residential. Neuf is one of Quebec's largest architecture practices, working on flagship projects both in Canada and overseas. They employ 155 staff in their Montreal head office.

Primary responsibilities

- Concept development
- Client liaison, presentations and weekly meetings
- Management of a team of five designers
- Coordination with other project professionals (architects, engineers, etc)
- Plan review
- Materials and techniques research
- Creation of service agreements, minutes and other formal documentation
- Preparation of presentation documents. Plan renderings and material sample boards.
- Clients: QMD Menard, Waterford Retirement Group, Morgan Stanley, Broccolini, Ville de Montreal, Allied Property, Pratt & Withney, Schluter, Groupe Equinoxe

Optima Design (Montreal)

Senior Designer, January -July 2014

Working on a variety of retail projects from large roll-outs to standalone boutique retail stores. Optima is a leading full-service Canadian bureau that specialises in retail, entertainment, food, hospitality and offices design, with over 20 employees.

Primary responsibilities

- Production of technical plans (including furniture and addenda). Site visits/surveys.
- Specification of finishes and approval of equivalencies
- Ensuring coordination between the client, GC, subcontractors and suppliers
- Clients: Dynamite, Aqua, Garage, Item, BRP, Harley Davidson

Bisset Adams (London)

Project Manager, April 2010- May 2013

Managing the rollout of Opel car dealership showrooms throughout Europe. Bisset Adams are a boutique agency, specialising in architecture, design, automotive and retail for over 25 years. They have 45 employees in their London head office.

Primary responsibilities

- Management of a team of 10 European design consultants and local architects
- Conceptualisation and development of interior and exterior design solutions
- Recruitment and training of new designers
- Creation of guidelines for branding and image development
- Development of templates as working tools and local language translation
- Site visits/surveys. Production and quality verification of all plans
- Organisation of client/dealer training days for new concept introduction
- Clients: Opel

GHA (Montreal)

Designer, November 2006- November 2008

Junior designer working across several teams and a wide variety of projects. GHA are one of North America's leading retail design firms, with over 80 employees.

- Branding and image development, signage development
- Store layout and master planning on CAD
- Presentation document preparation, perspectives and colouring, concept sketching
- Site visits/surveys. Master planning and plan development (hand-drafting).
- Clients: Fido, Rogers, Point Zero, Key West, Tess clothing, Temecula, Citrus Park